

Mevlana

«Mevlana» exchange program envisages exchange of students and teaching staff between Satbayev University and Turkish university partners with partial financing of the Council of Higher Education of Turkey. Students are given the opportunity to study at a Turkish institution of higher education for one or two semesters, while teachers are given the opportunity to give lectures for less than six hours a week from two weeks to three months.

Sponsorship

Students do not pay tuition fees and do not incur any additional costs in favour of the host university in the framework of the «Mevlana» exchange program, but continue to pay tuition fees at the university from which they come (if they are fee-paying students).

The Mevlana exchange program provides students with free tuition with a monthly scholarship of 1200-1300 TL supported by the Council for Higher Education of Turkey (YOK). Scholarships will be paid to students every month for four months after their arrival at the host university.

For teachers, the Mevlana programme provides funds to cover daily subsistence expenses of 45-55 Turkish liras per day. Transportation costs of 3,000-3,500 TL are also provided for.
